

Consolidated Billing Services

Accounting for benefits costs on an ongoing basis is a vital component of employee benefits administration. It's about more than just paying the carriers.

Our dedicated billing unit provides clients with resources dedicated to the specialized tasks of reporting, reconciling, auditing and paying monthly insurance costs. Our systems are configured to match rate and eligibility rules, and our processes yield deliverables that wrap around each client's internal financial controls.

Service Highlights:

- > Customized billing reports
- > Data can be organized by criteria such as department, location or branch allowing for an easier allocation of benefit-related costs
- > Summary reports that can be based on monthly data or year-to-date summation
- > Invoice auditing for accuracy and analyzed for variances which are reported on a month-to-month basis to minimize exposures to excessive retroactivity
- > Open communication with vendors to expedite questions or concerns regarding premium payments, rate discrepancies, timing of invoices and adjustments
- > Bill payment options using electronic fund transfers such as ACH debit or credit and wire transfers
- > Secure, 24/7 online access to billing reports
